

2019 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Writing Contest

Your Life Has Significance

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was an activist committed to peace, justice, and equality. As a visionary leader of the civil rights movement, King fought for racial and economic justice for the oppressed. His driving forces were nonviolence, love, the importance of family, and self-respect.

In 1981, Milwaukee educators and involved citizens began the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Writing Contest to celebrate and remember Dr. King's legacy. The contest continues today through their efforts.

This year's theme is "Your life has significance," from Dr. King's 1967 speech "What is Your Life's Blueprint?" in which he encouraged students to instill in themselves a deep belief in their own dignity. Educators are asked to familiarize students with Dr. King's beliefs, words, and actions. Students can reflect on these words and how they relate to themselves or others in their families, schools, neighborhoods or world.

Eligibility/Categories

The writing contest is open to students in grades K-12 who live in the city of Milwaukee, Wauwatosa or West Bend or are enrolled in a school, either public or private, within the city of Milwaukee, Wauwatosa or West Bend.

There are seven grade level categories:

- K-1: group project only (no individual essays), reflecting children's work and ideas
- Grades 2-3: individual entries, maximum length 250 words
- Grades 4-5: individual entries, maximum length 350 words
- Grade 6: individual entries, maximum length 400 words
- Grades 7-8: individual entries, maximum length 450 words
- Grades 9-10: individual entries, maximum length 500 words
- Grades 11-12: individual entries, maximum length 550 words

Typed essays are preferred. Handwritten submissions must be neat and legible. Only one side of the page may be used. Entries must stay within word limitations for their grade level, otherwise the essay will be disqualified.

Judging

The entries will be judged on a point system, with the following criteria considered:

- Entries must address the theme.
- Entries should relate the student's own personal ideas or experiences to the topic and show an understanding of Dr. King's ideals.
- Entries must not be a biographical sketch of Dr. King.
- Entries will be judged on the basis of clearly expressed, creative ideas. In judging entries, emphasis will be placed on clarity, creativity, and originality. Correct usage of basic grammar and writing skills will also be considered.

Teachers are encouraged to help students understand the historical context of Dr. King's words and actions, see the relevance of these words and actions in their world today, and become familiar with Dr. King's life and values. We recommend utilizing the resources of MPS school libraries and the Milwaukee Public Libraries.
